Ofsted April 26: Expected Standard in all areas

Expected Standard is:

“a high standard, to make sure your children are receiving everything they need and deserve.”

What does the report say?

What it's like to be a pupil at this school?

"Pupils enjoy being part of Winterbourne Academy. They feel safe and well cared for. They receive support from staff when they need it. Pupils know exactly who to turn to if they need help."

Community

What does the report say?

What it's like to be a pupil at this school?

"Pupils respect differences between people. They typically get along well with each other, and bullying is uncommon. On the rare occasions it does occur, pupils are confident that staff take it seriously and will resolve it quickly. They can also get support from other pupils, such as anti-bullying ambassadors."

What does the report say?

What it's like to be a pupil at this school?

“Most pupils enjoy their learning. They receive a curriculum that meets their needs, including pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND). Overall, pupils achieve well. Pupils leave very well prepared for the next stage of their education.”

Ambition

What does the report say?

What it's like to be a pupil at this school?

"Pupils develop their confidence through a wide variety of activities. They experience a range of events and visits. Many enrichment opportunities take place during the school day, meaning that all pupils participate. They relish taking on leadership roles, such as representing their peers in the school council and raising money for charity to support the local community. "

What does the report say?

What it's like to be a pupil at this school?

"Sixth-form students act as positive role models for younger pupils, showing self-discipline and maturity."

What does the report say?

“Leaders make sure the interests of pupils and their families are at the forefront of every decision taken at Winterbourne Academy.”
